

Understanding Anti-Indigenous Racism in Healthcare Workshop

Part 1 of 4

Pathways from Harm to Safety in Health Care

Art credit: Ryan MacTavish, SSW, Mohawk, Six Nations of the Grand River

Date/Time:

Monday October 6, 2025

1:00PM-4:00PM

Optional post-workshop 3-4PM

Learning Goals:

- Awareness and reflection on anti-Indigenous racism in health care
- Learning pathways towards cultural humility in care
- Traditional medicine activity and reflection (post-workshop option)

Presenters:

Jodi Rock, Turtle clan, Mohawk Nation, Six Nations of the Grand River by ancestry/registered band member of Mississaugas of the Credit First Nation (MCFN)

Indigenous Elder (TBD)

Audience:

- Health service providers, frontline & leadership
- Indigenous community members interested in health systems transformation

Location:

St. Joseph's Health Centre Guelph

Second Floor Auditorium

100 Westmount Rd, Guelph ON N1H 5H8

Free Parking

Register Here

*Light refreshments available