

Understanding Anti-Indigenous Racism in Healthcare Workshop

Part 2 of 4

Pathways from Harm to Safety in Health Care

Art credit: Jaycee Duguid, Mohawk, Six Nations of the Grand River

Date/Time:

Thursday November 6th, 2025

1:00PM-4:00PM

Optional post-workshop 3-4PM

Location:

Homewood Health Centre Guelph

Lecture Theatre

150 Delhi St, Guelph ON, N1E 6K9

Learning Goals:

- Forms of anti-Indigenous racism in healthcare
- Privileging biomedical knowledge and approaches
- Learning pathways towards cultural humility in care
- Traditional medicine activity and reflection (post-workshop option)

Presenters:

- Jodi Rock, Turtle clan, Mohawk Nation, Six Nations of the Grand River by ancestry/ registered band member of Mississaugas of the Credit First Nation (MCFN)
- Cassandra Sault, Mississaugas of the Credit First Nation

Audience:

- Health service providers, frontline & leadership
- Indigenous community members interested in health systems transformation

Register Here

You can join this series at any part on the journey.

If you missed Part I, access a recorded version here: <https://youtu.be/hNOKLrq--NQ>